

52nd National Concerto Competition – 2018/2019 Finals Results

Thank you to those who attended the Final of the 52nd National Concerto Competition on Saturday evening 23rd March. We were treated to 3 amazing performances from our Finalists who captivated the large audience, accompanied by the Christchurch Symphony Orchestra, conducted by David Kay.

I would like to congratulate the winners:

Diane Huh - First Prize ($10,000)

Diane Huh - People's Choice ($150)

Isabella Gregory - Second Prize ($3,000)

Hyein Kim - Third Prize ($1,500)

Hyein Kim – Junior Jury Prize ($100)

Musical Interlude from UC School of Music performing Luciano Berlo (1925-2003)

For the interlude we were delighted to have a group from the University of Canterbury School of Music perform works from Luciano Berlo (1925-2003).

Eduardo (1981) & Béla (1979)

From Berio's volume of violin duets, these two selections have been creatively arranged – as per Berio's own practice – for ensemble by tonight's performers with artistic guidance of Mark Menzies.

2019/2020 Competition:

Planning is now underway for the 2019/2020 competition which will be Piano. We have some dates for your diary:

- Preliminaries and Semi-Final – Thursday 5th and Friday 6th December 2019 at The Piano.
- Final – Saturday 21st March 2020. Venue to be confirmed.

I will be back in touch with further information as it becomes available.
