RECITALIST

Nicholas Sutcliffe is Organist & Co-Director of Choirs at Christ's College. He is also the Associate Curator of the Christchurch Town Hall Organ and Chairman of the Friends of the Town Hall Organ Trust.

Recently, he has served as Associate Director of Music at St Mary's Pro-Cathedral, and has previously been Assistant Organist and Acting Director of Music of Christchurch Cathedral.

While at university, Nicholas won first prize at the NZ Organ Performance Competition during this time. He has been a featured organist with the Auckland Philharmonia Orchestra workshopping and premiering a commissioned organ concerto, and the Christchurch Symphony Orchestra.
